

CONCORDIA UNIVERSITY

STINGER SPORTS

WOMEN'S SOCCER

On Saturday November 14 Concordia University will host the first CIAU national championship in Women's Soccer.

At 11:00 a.m. McMaster University, winners of the Ontario conference will meet Acadia University the Atlantic Conference champions. Following at 1:00 p.m. the Universite de Sherbrooke winner meet the University of British Columbia, the Canada West representative.

The winners of these two games meet in the CIAU championship game at McGill on Sunday November 15th at 12:00 p.m. (noon).

CIAU All Canadians for both the women's and men's soccer will be announced at the CIAU press reception Friday November 13th at 11:00 a.m. at the Loyola Campus Faculty Club.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

The Concordia Stingers lost in the bronze medal game of the Carleton University Robin Invitational basketball game this past weekend. November 5, 6 and 7.

Playing Sunday afternoon against the University of Waterloo for third spot in the tournament the Stingers fell 64-61

Pacing the Stingers were Suzie Czelnai with 22 points and Sharron St. Croix with 16 points. Carol Assalian was selected to the tournament All-Star team.

NEXT ACTION FOR THE STINGERS is this weekend November 13, 14 and 15 at the Dalhousie University Tournament.

WOMEN'S ICE HOCKEY

In the York University tournament this past weekend (November 5 and 6) the Stingers lost 2-1 in the championship game to the Toronto University Blues.

Scoring for the Stingers in the final was Jacqueline Montpetit. Montpetit also scored in Concordia's 5-2 opening tournament win over McMaster University.

Over...

Theresa Brisson and Debbie Gill each had 2 goals in the McMaster game Friday afternoon. Brisson and Gill were again the scorers for Concordia in a 2-1 semi final win over York Saturday morning.

The Stingers' strong showing in the York tournament re-establishes Concordia's claim to having one of the finest university women's ice hockey teams in Eastern Canada.

NEXT ACTION FOR THE STINGERS is Saturday November 14th when they host Dartmouth. GAME TIME IS 1:00 p.m.